- Breakfast at Casablanca hotel.
- 09h00 Departure to Marrakech, on the way we will stop to visit Rabat.
- 10h00 - 14h00 Half day devoted to Rabat city tour.
- Explore the capital city of Morocco, a destination unknown to most tourists. The Moroccan capital has a modern outlook, yet is also home to several interesting historic, religious, and cultural sites. Major attractions include:
  - The Royal Palace of Rabat (Dar al-Makhzen) is the official residence of the King of Morocco. While not open to the public, visitors can admire its majestic architecture and royal guards from the entrance.
  - Visit the Kasbah of the Oudayas – Stroll through this historic neighborhood with its white and blue alleys, explore the Andalusian Gardens, and enjoy a mint tea with an ocean view.
  - Discover the Hassan Tower and the Mausoleum of Mohammed V – An iconic site in Rabat, perfect for appreciating Moroccan architecture and history.
  - In addition to its historical landmarks, Rabat offers a range of attractions, including a picturesque beach, several museums and art galleries, and vibrant markets that capture the local flavor.
- 16h00 Departure to Marrakech.
- Overnight at Marrakech hotel.

DAY 3 ATLAS MOUNTAINS AND AGAFAY DESERT

- Breakfast Marrakech hotel and day trip to the Atlas Mountains & Agafay desert.
- Departure from Marrakech at 09h30. You will head to the Atlas Mountains, where you will be amazed at the beautiful natural area. You will see impressive vegetation, colorful rock cliffs, mountain streams, Berber villages and local mountain people that you will get to know and learn about their culture. ▪
- First stop in Tahnaout and visit woman-managed argan oil co-operative. Discover how the argan nut is pressed to make the famed argan oil products of Morocco. Choose some activities to do in the Atlas Mountains: ✓ Zipline on additional payments.
- Second stop is Asni (20 km south of Marrakech). Although in itself this village is not the most picturesque of Berber villages, it is still worth a stop, at least to admire the panorama and the surroundings.
- After that, you will walk in the wild mountains, as you climb the river valley towards the Toubkal mountains; you will reach the village of Imlil, a very important place of the route.
- Hiking in the Atlas Mountains: your guide will help you decide the length of your tour (you can choose between 1 and 3 hours) and you will head to the largest and highest village in the Imlil valley. Your journey will take you past the waterfalls and hamlets of Ait Mizan, Targa and Imoula. You will stop at Tamatert and have the opportunity to admire the views of the ancient irrigated terraced fields of barley, corn and vegetables, surrounded by cherry and walnut trees. ▪ Your guide will point out interesting things and talk about Berber culture and heritage along the way. Descend through the village of Ait Souka and then enjoy a traditional Moroccan meal in a Berber family's guesthouse.
- ▪ Lunch at Luxurious Kasbah of Toubkal (not included, supp cost: 35€ per person).
- At the end of the afternoon, you will be drive to the Agafay desert which is located between East Lake Lalla Takerkoust, South of the High Atlas Mountains, and along with western mine road Guemassa, you will explore an unspoiled nature of a desert and scraps area. Enjoy tea and take time to relax and marvel at the beautiful desert scenery. ▪ Choose from a variety of activities tailored to your preferences
- ▪ Traditional Moroccan dinner under a caidal tent with starter, main course and dessert. Moroccan show with traditional musical atmosphere (belly dancer, fire-eaters and Gnaoua music...) supp cost: 65€ per person
- Return to Marrakech and Overnight at Marrakech hotel.

DAY 4 MARRAKECH CITY TOUR

- Breakfast Marrakech hotel.
- Full day devoted to Marrakech city tour.
- Marrakesh is the second oldest Imperial city, known as the Pearl of the South. The city was founded by the Almoravides at the end of the 11th century. The historical sightseeing includes:
- The Menara Garden is a large garden planted with olive trees, and at the heart of this garden, a large pond at the foot of a pavilion.
- The Koutoubia Mosque is a religious building built in the 12th century, its architecture and its ascetic decoration undergone the art of the Almohades from a height of 77 meters (253 feet).
- The Bahia Palace is an old 19th century palace of eight hectares in Islamic style. Currently a museum. ▪ Visit the Mellah and the Jewish quarter, the narrow streets of Mellah were once home to the residences of the city's Jewish population, as evidenced by several sites of interest such as the Salat Al Azama synagogue, with its tiled courtyard and exhibits on Jewish life, and the peaceful Miaara Jewish cemetery.
- Visit the souks and handicraft quarters, displaying a variety of items and the famous place Djemaa El Fna with its nonstop entertainment
- Return to hotel and time at leisure.
